Report for NPHC of Houston Committee Report

Greetings Brothers,

On February 11th of 2019, I attended the NPHC of Houston monthly meeting. There were several things discussed at the meeting please see below:

- NPHC Houston donated $1,202 to the March of Dimes Organization
- Update on 2K19 Greek Picnic; April 26th – 28th: 11th Annual Greeks Are the Life of the Party
 - 4/26 – Happy Hour with a Purpose – Happy Hour will be at Prospect Park – They have a proposal to give donations to Divine 9 Foundation on behalf of scholarships instead of St. Jude
 - Divine 9 Foundation is asking for donations for the scholarships and they will be selling raffle tickets at the picnic on Sunday to raise money
 - Divine 9 Foundation will have an open meeting March 5th at Blackshear Elementary
 - Their goal is to give out $4,000 in scholarships by June
 - Divine 9 president will be sending out a letter for donations for scholarships ($100 request) to all the chapters in the NPHC of Houston (36 chapters)
 - 4/27 – Community Day – Location has been set at the Houston Public Library Central Location (Downtown). The event is Greeks Aligned for Service and combined with a youth symposium (Ages 13-18). They are asking for organizations to bring out any youth organizations attached to their chapter. The symposium will be centered on how the youth should interact with law enforcements. HBCUs and UNCF will be in attendance. Proposed times are 9am -1pm or 10am – 2pm.
This will be a good event to bring the lamplighters to
 - 4/28 – Greek Picnic – 12pm – 6pm @ Adair Park
 - There will be a Stroll Off at the picnic. It has been decided that the stroll off will not be a competition only in fun. They made it where it's not chapter stroll off but organization stroll off. 5 minutes per organization and two songs.
 - There is a best tent contest and a prize for the best tent
- Position is up for the EC for the NPHC - For Omega Psi Phi the position is Recording Secretary
- Sigma Gamma Rho Happy Hour with a Purpose is 3/29 at Phill and Derek Lounge from 5pm – 9pm
- Lambda Zeta Chapter of Zeta Phi Beta Evening of Brilliant Jewels party
